

Blithfield Sailing Club Calendar

Instructor FAQ

Do I need to read anything else

first? Yes. It helps if you have read the BSC website and FAQs about Google Calendar.

Do I need a Google account?

Yes. As an instructor it would really help us track who can instruct at each event.

Is the training calendar public?

No. It is only available to club members.

Where can I see the Training

Calendar? Through Google calendars or the Club website if you have signed into Google with the same browser you are using to view the website and have added the training calendar to your list.

How do I link to the Training Calendar?

Sign in to Google Calendar and then paste the following link qs8vmh1mc2bhm3ahkifrnqpvuo@group.calendar.google.com in the box that says: Add a friend's calendar. You should have added the training calendar to your list. If there is a problem contact Web.Editor@blithfield.org.uk

Who else is helping?

Click on the event and click again to see more details. Who is coming will be visible as will any short messages they have sent.

BLITHFIELD SAILING CLUB

Invited to a training event – How do I reply?

Sign on to your Google account then Click on the link in your email invite. You can say yes/no/maybe and leave a short message (for everyone to see). It should look something like this:
